

National Conference on Recent Advances in Algology, Mycology and Plant Pathology (NCRAAMPP-2014)

&

Golden Jubilee of Centre of Advanced Study by UGC

February 19-20, 2014

Organized by

The Centre for Advanced Studies in Botany, University of Madras Guindy Campus, Chennai-600025.

About the Centre & Conference

The Madras University Botany Laboratory (UBL) was established in 1930 and acquired the Centre of Advanced Study status from the UGC in the year 1964. The Centre is known for its contribution in terms of Academic and Research activities in the three thrust areas like Algology, Mycology and Plant Pathology and will be completing 50 years of the CAS status in 2014. It is befitting to commemorate the Golden Jubilee of the CAS status by organizing a National Conference with emphasis on the three thrust areas.

Venue of the conference

The conference will be held at the Chemical Sciences Auditorium located at the Guindy Campus of the University of Madras. The Chennai metropolitan city has been well connected with air, train and bus services. The conference venue will be 7 km from the Chennai International and Domestic Airports, 11 km from Chennai Central Railway station and 12 km from the Coimbedu Metropolitan Bus Terminus. The weather in February will be pleasant with temperature from 30°C to 32°C.
