

Tamil Nadu Agricultural University
Coimbatore – 641 003

Dr. M. Rajavel, Ph.D.,
Public Relations Officer
Mobile: 94890 56730

Phone: 0422 - 6611302
Fax: 0422 – 2431821
E-mail: pro@tnau.ac.in

To
The Editor,
Sir,

Date: 07.03.2023

I request that the following message may kindly be published in your esteemed daily:

Inauguration of Competitive Examination Coaching Centre at TNAU

The inauguration of the “Competitive Examination Coaching Centre” in the Centre for Students Welfare, TNAU held at the Tamil Nadu Agricultural University Coimbatore by Dr.V.Irai Anbu, IAS, Chief Secretary and the Director General of Training, Government of Tamil Nadu on 07.03.2023 at the Tamil Nadu Agricultural University, Coimbatore.

While welcoming the gathering Dr.V.Geethalakshmi, Vice Chancellor, TNAU, Coimbatore exhorted the students to secure the government jobs by equipping them through the coaching classes and they need to work hard and slog hours together to reap the success quotient and by perusing the old questions and sample questions papers.

Mrs.Mythile K.Rajendran, The Secretary Human Resource Development appreciated the all-out efforts centre for carving out strategies to produce more number of civil servants and in future this kind of initiatives will bring more prospective students to become successful in their job career by utilising the opportunities more effectively.

Dr.V.Irai Anbu, IAS, Chief Secretary and the Director General of Training, Government of Tamil Nadu while inaugurating insisted the student to intensify the reading and synthesising the concepts by working for more hours after the classes. He also underscored the need for concentration and curb the diversification by putting for the heart and soul with fullest dedication and commitment.

Further he stated the objective of starting the centre in TNAU is due to the reason that it is endowed with rich reservoir of books and the well furnished library and the congenial and salubrious climate it owned for the calm and serene mind to study for the examinations.

He also underscored the urgent need to update and renew not only the subjects under study but also the general knowledge and information which serves as the ready reckoner to taste the success quotient.

Determination, alacrity, enthusiasm and large scale awareness apart from galloping like a horse and the sort of training and practise would enable the students to achieve the winning formula. Cross pollination was analogised with that of the cross learning and group discussion to evolve promising results, he added. Further he exhorted the students to curl on weekly magazines and dailies for impregnating recent happenings events and other phenomena.

Nearly 1000s of students of both UG and PG from the university and 1000 students from constituent colleges of TNAU and other higher educational institutions spread across the Coimbatore participated in both online and offline. Dr.N.Maragatham, the Dean (Centre for Students Welfare), TNAU, Coimbatore proposed a formal vote of thanks.

Public Relations Officer